Tillman Hall was dedicated in 1891 and was originally called "The Agricultural Building." Much of the building was destroyed in a fire on May 22, 1894 but was rebuilt and was then known as the "Main Building." It was formally named Tillman Hall in honor of Benjamin Ryan Tillman (Governor of South Carolina, 1890-95; United States Senator, 1895-1918; life trustee of Clemson Agricultural College, 1888-1918) by the Board of Trustees in July, 1946. Tillman Hall is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Photo by Steve Bynum, Information Tech Manager I, Customer Relations & Learning Technologies, Clemson University.

A WORD ABOUT THIS REPORT ...

Clemson University's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report was prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), and accordingly, reflected the changes promulgated by the implementation of Governmental Accounting Standards Board Statements No. 34 and No. 35, which among other changes, eliminated the presentation of financial information by funds, eliminated double-counting of some financial statement items, and required the capitalization and depreciation of costs that were previously expensed in the fund accounting model.

Many of the schedules and statements included in this report are provided to assist management in the assessment and comparison of financial data. This information is not presented according to GAAP, and in many cases, is not directly comparable to balances and totals in the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report.
